B. NON-DISCIPLINARY REINSTATEMENTS

Lawyers may be automatically suspended under Rule 6.01(f) upon non-payment of annual enrollment fees. If their non-payment exceeds three years, they must apply for reinstatement under Rule 5.28. In 2007, the OCDC investigated and processed 10 applications for reinstatement by those lawyers. All were reinstated. Three applications remained pending at the end of 2007.

Lawyers may elect to become inactive under Rule 6.03. Per Rule 6.06, the OCDC investigated and processed 16 inactive lawyers' applications who were returned to active status. Two applications were dismissed by order of the Court and two applications remained pending at the end of 2007.

Lawyers may be automatically suspended for state tax issues under Rule 5.245. During 2007, the OCDC investigated and processed 8 tax suspension applications for reinstatement and all were reinstated. One application remained pending at the end of 2007.

IV. COMPLAINTS RECEIVED AND ACTED UPON IN 2007

2,359 complaints of attorney misconduct were received in 2007.

During 2007, the following actions were taken on complaints received:

- 816 Formal Investigations opened
 - 594 Cases investigated by Regional Disciplinary Committees
 - 222 Cases investigated by OCDC

- 95 Cases placed in the OCDC's Informal Resolution Program
[*See Paragraph A (below)]

- 1,167 Investigations not opened (In certain instances, OCDC does not open an investigation until after related litigation is completed.) Approximately 156 complaints were provided a further review and response by senior OCDC staff, following complainants' requests. Some of those reviews led to an investigation being opened.

- 175 Insufficient information to proceed

- 34 Referred to Fee Dispute Committees

- 46 Referred to Complaint Resolution Committee (*See Missouri Bar Complaint Resolution Activity Report attached.)

- 31 Placed in "Inquiry" status (These cases were not opened but were monitored to determine whether an investigation should be opened in the future.)

A. Informal Resolution Program

In this program, intake counsel assigns appropriate cases to a paralegal to contact the complainant, the respondent, or both, to assist in resolving the complaint rather than proceeding with a formal investigation. The program is used most often in response to complaints that the client has not had adequate communication from the lawyer or where the client has been unable to obtain file documents. It may also be used in a case where the complainant has trouble articulating the nature of the complaint, or seems confused about the lawyer's responsibilities or the legal process.

The program has been successful in reducing complaint processing time while preserving the attorney/client relationship. Most cases in the program were resolved without opening an investigation.

B. Advisory Committee Review

Rule 5.12 permits complainants to seek review by the Advisory Committee in cases in which the OCDC or a Regional Disciplinary Committee investigates and finds no probable cause that a violation occurred. In 2007, 70 complainants requested review. The Advisory Committee upheld the findings on 38 of these files but issued cautionary letters to 3 lawyers. The Committee assigned 15 of the review files for further investigation. Seventeen review files were pending with the Committee at the end of the year.

C. Fee Disputes

The Missouri Bar, Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association and the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis continued to provide fee dispute resolution programs. These programs are valuable to lawyers and legal consumers by providing a forum for fee-related complaints to be addressed through a non-disciplinary structure. During the year, 34 complainants were referred to Fee Dispute Committees.

V. DISCIPLINE ACTION INITIATED

A. Admonitions

The OCDC administered 58 written admonitions and the Regional Disciplinary Committees administered 91 written admonitions to Missouri lawyers. (Total: 149 admonitions). In addition, 100 cautionary letters were sent to lawyers by OCDC and the Regional Committees. Cautionary letters are not disciplinary action, but are used to educate the attorney on ethical responsibilities or to alert the attorney that a particular course of conduct, if unchecked in the future, may cause additional complaints to be filed.

C. Filed Hearing Matters

FILING INFORMATION

In 2007, the OCDC and the Regional Disciplinary Committees filed 47 Informations (the formal charging document) on 114 files. "Files" indicate individual complaints against attorneys. An Information against one attorney may include charges involving multiple files.

Eighteen Informations, representing 56 complaint files, were pending before the Advisory Committee and Disciplinary Hearing Panels at the beginning of 2007. Disciplinary Hearing Panels conducted 21 hearings involving 48 files. Default Informations were filed directly in the Supreme Court against 6 attorneys.

D. Cases filed at the Supreme Court

RULE 5.19

Informant's briefs were filed pursuant to Rule 5.19(d), in the Supreme Court in seven cases in 2007. Of those seven cases, four were heard because the Respondent did not concur in a DHP's recommended sanction and three were heard after the Court rejected a joint stipulation. In addition, Informant's reply briefs were filed in three cases. Six disciplinary cases appeared on the Court's oral argument calendar in 2007.

RULE 5.20

Six reciprocal discipline cases, based on adjudications of misconduct in other jurisdictions, were filed in 2007: In re Bentivoglio, SC88284, In re Lazzo, SC88335, In re Pennock, SC88431, In re Daugherty, SC88432, In re Daniels, SC88659, and In re Alig, SC88915.

RULE 5.21

Informations were filed under Rule 5.21 against eleven attorneys who had pled guilty, had been found guilty, or pled nolo contendere to violations of criminal laws: In re Noonan, SC88349, In re Peel, SC88481, In re Beeman, SC88517 and SC88883, In re Michel-Setzer, SC88610, In re Brown, SC88622, In re Selby, SC88639, In re Kaiser, SC88683, In re Cooper, SC88729, In re Affholter, SC88745 and SC88896, In re McKeon, SC88868, and In re Fabbri, SC88889.

RULE 5.24

Two Informations requesting interim suspensions for threat of harm were filed in 2007: In re Tolen, SC88831, and In re Washburn, SC89008.

RULE 5.25

In 2007, two attorneys applied to surrender their licenses under Rule 5.25. The ODCD filed Reports and Recommendations on each of these in 2007: In re Shepard, SC88362, and In re Sullivan, SC88591.

VI. LAWYER MONITORING

OCDC staff monitor lawyers' practice in four circumstances, all intended to improve the lawyers' likelihood of maintaining a successful practice and protecting the public. In 2007, the office monitored 22 lawyers in the disciplinary diversion program established by Rule 5.105. The diversion program was created to help first offenders who have engaged in relatively minor rule violations.

Twenty-six lawyers were monitored in 2007 while on probation under Rule 5.225, the rule permitting probation for suspended lawyers whose conduct did not warrant disbarment.

Also, the office was asked by the Missouri Supreme Court and Missouri Board of Law Examiners in 2007 to monitor the practice of 7 newly admitted lawyers. Finally in 2007, the office monitored the practice of 7 lawyers who have been reinstated subject to an order of probation.

VII. UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE OF LAW

The Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel opened complaint files on approximately 20 individuals and organizations alleged to have engaged in the unlawful practice of law.

Some of these cases were referred to local prosecuting attorneys or to the Consumer Protection Division of the Missouri Attorney General's office. Others were resolved through communication with the company or individual.

Due to the workload and staff resources of OCDC, the office limited its efforts to conducting in-depth investigations only when there appeared to be widespread consumer fraud occurring. Where appropriate, the office conducted investigations of complaints, and the office referred the materials to law enforcement for criminal prosecution as OCDC is only authorized to seek a civil injunction against a party for engaging in the unauthorized practice of law.

VIII. PRESENTATIONS BY OCDC STAFF

During 2007, OCDC staff gave 41 presentations at Continuing Legal Education (CLE) seminars. The OCDC staff gave presentations to the following organizations: Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis; Bar Association of Eastern Jackson County; Federal Law Clerks; Kansas City Bench and Bar; Missouri Department of Social Services; Missouri School Boards Association; Missouri Paralegal Association; Regional Committee Training Meetings; Springfield

Metropolitan Bar Association; St. Joseph Bar Association; St. Louis University; University of Missouri-Kansas City; United States Bankruptcy Trustees; and William Woods University. The OCDC staff also spoke at the Missouri Bar Annual Meeting, several Missouri Bar telephone CLE's; the Solo and Small Firm Conference, and many other Missouri Bar CLE presentations, sponsored by the Missouri Bar and other organizations..

IX. SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES IN 2007

Staff Changes

The Missouri Supreme Court named Alan D. Pratzel as the new Chief Disciplinary Counsel, effective April 2, 2007. Prior to his appointment, Mr. Pratzel was in private practice in the City of St. Louis. He also served for twenty-two years as the Special Representative for the Region X and XI Disciplinary Committees, with administrative responsibility for the investigation and prosecution of disciplinary cases in St. Louis County and the City of St. Louis.

Disciplinary Case Processing

The OCDC previously established a timeline standard for pending investigation cases that seeks to complete 75% of investigations within six months and 90% within one year. The OCDC and the disciplinary system met the timeline standard throughout 2007.

Policy regarding Frequent Complaint Recipients

The OCDC devotes a significant amount of its resources to complaints against attorneys who are frequent complaint recipients (FCR attorneys). In an attempt to address this issue, the OCDC adopted a policy in July 2007 intended to identify and meet with FCR attorneys in order to discuss and address law practice management issues and other issues affecting the FCR attorney that might be contributing to client complaints. In addition, the meetings are intended to inform the FCR attorney regarding the disciplinary process and the system of progressive discipline adhered to by the OCDC. The FCR policy is underway and is currently being evaluated by the OCDC.

Practice Management Course

In 2007, with the approval of the Missouri Supreme Court, the OCDC began working with The Missouri Bar to develop a comprehensive program to address the issues raised by the lack of law practice management skills among a few members of the Bar whose clients have repeatedly complained. This cooperative effort resulted in the development of a two-day Practice Management Course which will be staffed by a distinguished faculty of lawyers from around the state. The course will initially be offered in two sessions in Kansas City and St. Louis in fall 2008. At the close of the two-day program, the participants will be asked to prepare a business plan tailored to meet any known weaknesses in their office practices. The OCDC will provide ongoing support for the participants.

Scanning/Paperless Office Project

In an effort to increase system efficiency and to reduce investigative expenses, the OCDC began a significant planning effort in 2007 to institute a paperless system of complaint processing by the OCDC and the Regional Disciplinary Committees in Kansas City, St. Louis and Springfield. Under the proposed system, complaints and other externally-received documents would be scanned as they entered the OCDC and case files would be maintained and transmitted in a secure, electronic format. The OCDC expects to implement this important project during fall 2008.

Financial Needs

Increased expenses incurred at the end of a dues cycle led to depleting reserves over the past years. In support of a requested dues increase, the Advisory Committee and the Chief Disciplinary Counsel completed a two year budget and three year financial projection in July 2007. Pursuant to Rule 6.01, the Missouri Supreme Court set the Advisory Committee portion of the annual attorney fees at $101, effective in 2008.

Physical Facilities

The following building projects have been proposed for the OCDC building, to be completed in 2008:

- Provide ADA access to the building's only meeting area;
- Add adequate parking space for existing staff, visitors, and proposed staff increases (the building currently has 13 parking spaces for 16 employees);
- Add carpet over concrete, add dropped ceiling to cover exposed insulation, complete wiring, and paint walls in an unfinished area of the lower level to provide additional office space; and
- Repair or replace front door unit and front decorative columns that have rotted.

With regard to the building's long term viability, after careful consideration and with regard to the somewhat speculative nature of the projections, we believe that we will be able to remain in the existing OCDC facility without additional space during the next four years. It is likely, however, that we will be required to consider during the latter part of the current 5-year projection period whether the existing facility will be adequate after 2012.

Regional Disciplinary Committee Training

The OCDC is an accredited MCLE provider. In 2007, we continued to host training sessions and MCLE presentations for the benefit of lawyer and non-lawyer volunteers and special representatives who participate in the disciplinary system at the Regional Disciplinary Committee level. The OCDC presented CLE presentations on current issues in the disciplinary system at luncheons honoring the Regional Disciplinary Committee members in Kansas City, St. Louis and Springfield.

Staff Training

In 2007, the OCDC attorney staff participated in training by attending conferences offered by The Missouri Bar, the National Organization of Bar Counsel and the American Bar Association – Center for Professional Responsibility. Paralegals in the office attended and presented training through the Missouri Paralegal Association and the nationwide Organization of Bar Investigators, an affiliate of the National Organization of Bar Counsel.

Significant Amendments to Supreme Court Rules 4, 5 and 6

The ABA promulgated its latest version of the Model Rules of Professional Conduct through its Ethics 2000 project. Following a thorough review of the ABA model rules by a special committee of The Missouri Bar, the Supreme Court Advisory Committee and the OCDC staff, the Missouri Supreme Court adopted a new Rule 4, effective July 1, 2007. The OCDC staff and The Missouri Bar have made numerous presentations to the bar, highlighting the most significant amendments to the Rule 4. Among those significant amendments are the following:

- The comments to Rule 4-4.2 clarify attorney's authority with regard to contact with former employees of an opposing party;
- Requirements that a client's waiver of a conflict under Rules 4-1.7, 4-1.9 and 4-1.11 be "confirmed in writing";
- A broader range of options available to lawyers having clients with diminished capacity under Rule 4-1.14;
- A new Rule 4-1.18 regarding contacts with prospective clients;
- New requirements under Rule 4-4.4(b) with regard to the receipt of inadvertently sent documents; and

- A specific prohibition on sexual relations between an attorney and a client under Rule 4-1.8(j).

Rule 5 Amendments

The Supreme Court, on October 25, 2007, adopted changes to Rules 5.14, 5.16, 5.19, 5.27 and 5.28, effective January 1, 2008:

- (a) Rule 5.14 added provisions for peremptory challenges to members of a disciplinary hearing panel, and for the appointment of special masters in lieu of disciplinary hearing panels in certain situations;
- (b) Rules 5.16 and 5.19 were reorganized to place all disciplinary proceedings prior to action by the Supreme Court in 5.16 and all disciplinary proceedings pending before the Supreme Court in 5.19. Decisions of disciplinary hearing panels now are deemed to be accepted by Informants and Respondents unless affirmatively rejected within 30 days of the date of the panel decision. In addition to court costs, specific discipline fees have been set: $750 for Reprimand; $1,000 for Suspension, and $2,000 for disbarment;
- (c) Rule 5.27 now has an effective date of 15 days after a Supreme Court order for suspension or disbarment, unless the Court orders otherwise;
- (d) Rule 5.28 sets a reinstatement fee of $500 for all disciplinary reinstatements.

SUMMARY OF DISCIPLINE ACTIONS

During 2007:

- 15 Fifteen lawyers were disbarred;
- 35 Thirty-five lawyers were suspended; twelve of those suspensions were stayed and attorneys placed on probation with conditions;
- 16 Sixteen lawyers received public reprimands;
- 149 One-hundred forty-nine written admonitions were administered by the Regional Disciplinary Committees and the OCDC; and
- 3 Three additional matters were dismissed by the Court.

These figures include proceedings initiated by Regional Committees and the OCDC.

On occasion, other pending complaints against a lawyer are dismissed upon that lawyer's disbarment or suspension.
